SUMMARY

Mobile and Full-stack Web Developer focused on building reliable mobile applications end-to-end, from requirements and UI decisions through CI/CD and app store releases. Experienced across mobile, web, and backend, with a track record of shipping features that improve usability, performance, and data-driven product decisions. I believe in strong cross-functional collaboration with product teams, a proactive learning mindset, and a pragmatic approach to building maintainable, scalable solutions.

EXPERIENCE

Freelance

Mar. 2026 – Present

Mobile Developer

Brazil - Remote

- Design, build, and ship cross-platform mobile applications for clients end-to-end, owning the full lifecycle from requirements and UI/UX decisions through development, testing, and app store release.
- Set up CI/CD pipelines with automated app store publishing for each project, enabling fast, repeatable deployments and reducing release overhead from day one.
- Translate client needs into clean, maintainable architectures, balancing rapid delivery with long-term scalability and code quality.

Trans Obra

Jan. 2026 – Mar. 2026

Mobile Developer

Curitiba, PR - Remote

- Led the end-to-end development of a new mobile application from scratch, owning every stage from requirements definition to production release and giving the company its first dedicated field-technician app.
- Built a CI/CD pipeline integrated with automated app store publishing, eliminating manual release steps and enabling deployments from the very first build.
- Designed an offline-first architecture prioritizing usability and availability in low-connectivity job sites, ensuring field technicians could work uninterrupted without network access.
- Created the application's entire visual identity and app store assets, bridging UI/UX design and DevOps.

Tiflux

Feb. 2025 – Jan. 2026

Web/Mobile Developer

Joinville, SC - Hybrid

- Owned the mobile version of the CRM/ERP platform across Android and iOS, managing its full presence in the app stores and keeping it performant and scalable as the user base grew.
- Implemented a usage-monitoring system with PostHog to capture real user behavior, enabling the team to prioritize features based on data instead of assumptions.
- Partnered with the product team to ship new web platform features end-to-end, contributing across frontend and backend.

Tiflux

Web Development Intern

- Delivered new features for a large CRM and ERP platform as part of a collaborative team, contributing across both frontend and backend.
- Improved application performance through database query optimization, helping keep the platform responsive as it scaled.
